CHANGE THE STATUS QUO

Social Justice Leadership Conference

This conference aims to empower students to use the Learn by Doing spirit to challenge social norms, ask critical questions, demand solutions and make lasting social change. Through guest speakers, inspiring workshops, and engaging sessions, students will learn about the potential for social action and how they can contribute to these efforts in order to effect social change.

February 29
8 a.m. - 6 p.m.
$10 for Cal Poly Students

Our Town

“Hailed by many as ‘…the greatest American play ever written,’ Our Town provides a poetic look at life in the small town of Grover’s Corners, New Hampshire. Through three acts of “Daily Life,” “Love and Marriage,” and “Death and Eternity,” this re-imagining of Thornton Wilder’s classic story is a remarkably universal yet personal portrait of our collective humanity; an American tale about family, friendship, love, death, and a life worth living.”

*Tickets are $12 for Cal Poly Students
